1986 HORIZONS

ALONG THE LINES OF . . .

It's now Friday morning, February 21, 1986. The yearbook must be at UPS by 5:00, and the Horizons staff is beginning to sweat. The original draft of this copy is sitting uselessly on Ned Lilly's kitchen counter. So now, we start to think. Who really reads divider page copy? It seems that this well-meaning section of the yearbook rather often degenerates into boring, trite phrases like "exciting year full of changes" and "another great year in Bulldog history." So what, we wonder, will be our approach to this year's opening copy? (Copy, for the benefit of the uninitiated, is anything written in a yearbook). But what can we say? Do we mention that NA was recognized in a national ceremoy conducted by President Reagan? Or do we mention a more negative development, such as late demerits rising to two? We certainly wouldn't presume. Anyway, for purposes of introduction . . . the next six pages are loosely called "the opening section", after which the "main body" of the text begins. From the 1986 Horizons staff: Aruga, lish, and Enjoy.

Opposite Page Top: Scott Hamilton, John Vidaver, Tony Montagna, Denton Woodward, and Brian Root watch the Mets game at Shea Stadium.

LIBERTY

Above: Lower School secretary Pat Foltz enjoys a moment with her granddaughter.

Below: It's the attack of the killer spiders!

FRATERNITY

Above Right: Varsity Hockey players rejoice over another victory.

Right: Chuck Burgess and Morgan Jenkins — the bloomer twins — display knobby knees at the powder puff game.

With the stage set by NA's outstanding production of Camelot in February, the entire Academy family was in a Merry Medieval mood for Field Day on May 4th. Jousting knights and fair damsels abounded on this annual festive money raising event. Chairwomen Eileen Cooper and Judy Ann Rachels guided the hundreds of Round Table volunteers and participants through the auction at the Norfolk Botanical Gardens and the Art Show in the school lobby featuring 63 artists before the culmination of Field Day itself. Then, the traditional activities began with the Sunrise Breakfast, the 5-K Run, Tennis Tournament, and Field Events for the students in grades four through six. Lower School students, grades one through three added to the fest with their play, drawing standing room only crowds. These events combined with international cuisine, Midway, Country Store, Love and Elbow Grease, raffle ticket sales, et al, resulted in the production of an all-time high figure of $77,000 to benefit the school. Robin Hood would have been proud!

A TOUCH OF CLASS

Norfolk's high class Town Point Club set the perfect stage for the Junior-Senior Prom. Margaret Scott and Jennifer Weaver carried out the theme of elegance with their waitress uniforms while Howard Abraham and Daniel Pitman manned the elevator. Meanwhile, on the eighth floor, the guests tapped their toes to the upbeat sound of Locals Only. The Junior Class and its president Mary Rundle should be congratulated for coordinating the social event of the season.

Lower School graduates another 6th grade class

The Lower School held its graduation exercise at 11:00 A.M. on June 11. Opening the ceremony was Martin Engel who read from the Bible, and Brian Reshevsky who delivered the opening prayer. Choral presentations by the fifth grade contributed to the occasion. The presentation of awards began with the most Outstanding Athletes, awarded to Jennifer Mosquera and David Cordon. The Spelling Bee winners were Doug Levy in the fifth grade and Matthew Frost in the sixth grade. The Daughters of the American Revolution Award went to Somer Saloman and Campe Goodman, who also went on to win first place in the region. The Norfolk Academy Literary Magazine Award was divided into two categories. Susan Levy and Torrey Breeden received recognition for their poetry, while Rachel Reda and Vanessa MacKinlay were awarded for their prose contributions. After numerous other awards, the ceremonies ended with the Bess More and Vickery Alfriend Citizenship Awards, given to Virginia Wright and Martin Engel.

HAVE A CIGAR?

The Class of 1985 graduates many with high honors

Yes, the impossible can happen as evidenced by the events occurring on June 11, 1985 at 4:55 P.M. Just five minutes before the graduation ceremonies were to begin, a thunderstorm erupted and the electricity was lost. Nonetheless, graduation took place with James Deane and Dan Etheridge leading the procession. Mr. Gary Laws gave the invocation and Mr. Tucker welcomed the parents and guests. Lauren Wainger and Lawrence Levin then proceeded to deliver their valedictory addresses without the aid of a microphone. Immediately following was the presentation of awards. Wainger and Levin accepted awards as the girl and boy with the highest scholastic averages. Lauren received the Rachel C. and C. Bernard Brown Award and Lawrece received the John H. Ingram Memorial Award. Denise Katsias received the Virginia Ellis Talbot Award for the girl who showed the highest degree of leadership based on influence of character. As the senior boy who rendered the highest service through leadership based on influence of character, Glenn Youngkin received the S. Barron Segar Award. Other awards included John Nusbaum's F. Baldwin Citizenship Award and Kay Morgan's David Ari Leavitt Award. Following the Twelve-year Awards, Mr. Syer joined Mr. Tucker and Mr. Stacey for the presentation of diplomas. Upon receiving their diplomas, each senior boy handed Mr. Tucker a cigar in return. The festivities concluded with "America the Beautiful" and Mr. Laws' Benediction.

A SINGULAR HONOR

Norfolk Academy among America's best

Norfolk Academy among 'model' schools

By STEVE STONE
Staff writer

NORFOLK — Norfolk Academy is among 65 private schools in the nation and the only one in Virginia recognized by U.S. Education Secretary William J. Bennett as "models for the nation."

In a congratulatory letter to Norfolk Academy's headmaster, John H. Tucker Jr., Bennett said, "The private schools selected for recognition provide particularly high exemplary education for their students and are successful in fostering the intellectual, moral and social growth of the young people attending them."

Each recognized school will receive a plaque and a flag at a White House ceremony this fall.

"It's pretty significant," Tucker said Sunday of the recognition.

"It's an attempt to recognize exemplary schools, and being selected is a tribute to teachers, students, alumni, parents and trustees," he said.

The academy, founded in 1728, is the oldest secondary school in Virginia and the 13th-oldest in the country.

Also cited for excellence were 212 public schools. In Virginia, those named were Hampton High School, in Hampton; Washington-Lee High School, in Arlington; Huntington Junior High, in Newport News; and Brookland Junior High, in Richmond.

"These schools represent the strength and vitality of America's pluralistic system of education," Bennett said.

"Their diversity provides clear evidence that all types of schools — public, private, urban, suburban, rural, large and small — are able to provide highly effective programs and rich educational experiences that foster excellence and transmit a love of learning to students," he said.

Detailed applications, site visits, and interviews with people from each school and the community are used in the judging, the Department of Education said.

Schools are scrutinized for characteristics that contribute to school effectiveness and student success.

The private schools were selected by the Council for American Private Education from among 257 senior high schools nominated.

The United States has about 6,000 private schools.

Private schools had to meet 13 general criteria to win recognition. Among them were the following:

- A clear statement of school philosophy.
- The offering of educational experiences consistent with the school's stated mission that stress basic skills while challenging students to "engage in complex reasoning and to grow in intellectual and moral judgment."
- Maintenance of rigorous academic standards.
- A demonstration of quality, via test scores, college entrances, career placement and a variety of other measures.
- The provision of an effective and involved faculty.
- Maintenance of social and community involvements in a multicultural and multiracial environment.
- Prudent financial management.
- Involvement of parents.

Norfolk Academy is housed in nine buildings next to Virginia Wesleyan College. It has 1,080 students in grades 1 through 12, with a 92-member faculty. Most of its students are from South Hampton Roads, and they commute to class.

PIG ROAST AND PIGSKINS

Homecoming festivities culminate

This year's Homecominig festivities generated excitement and much school spirit. Homecoming, Friday and Saturday, November 8th and 9th, began with a pep rally at school on Friday. This pep rally included the crowning of the 1985 Homecoming "Queen," Mr. Tom Hudgins. Friday night, the Junior Class sponsored a semi-formal dance from 8:30 P.M. to 11:30 P.M. in the Burroughs gymnasium. The dance featured the popular Norfolk Academy band, "Dirty Feet."On Saturday afternoon at 5:00, the Pig Roast and Chicken Barbecue took place on campus. Another pep rally featuring the Drum Corps and more music followed the good food. Through the efforts of the Alumni Association, who organized the roast, and Mr. Chris Nelson, the event's overall coordinator, over 500 people attended the Feast. The festivities reached a climax Saturday night at 7:30, when the Norfolk Academy Bulldogs crushed the Crusaders of Norfolk Catholic at Met Park, 18-6.

Norfolk Academy students were involved in two major international service projects this past year. In late October, the International Relations Club sponsored a relief concert to aid the victims of a tragic earthquake in Mexico City. Billed as Mexicaid, the show featured NA's own Dirty Feet (Scott Hamilton, Matt West, Matthew Zimmer, and Tres Swann). Tickets went for a dollar a head and all in all the IRC raised several hundred dollars for the earthquake victims.

Another major project was NA's support of Operation Smile, the Norfolk based Phillipines Medical relief project. The Happy Club was the chief proponent of this effort. From mix 'n' match, to M&M's, to magic markers, the Happy Club approached each project with enthusiasm and imagination. Largely through the efforts of this club, over $2000 was raised from Academy families, friends, clubs, and faculty to initiate a successful adoption program between local residents and Filipino families. Another drive, tagged Operation Handshake, focussed on school supplies for Filipino children.

Twenty-some odd boxes of supplies and clothing were sent over with the Operation Smile surgical team when it left in late January. Accompanying the doctors, nurses, and support staff were NA students Danny Rosin, Catherine Baillio, Mary Rundle, and Brigette Magee. These four people worked with the doctors in the operating rooms, visited the local inhabitants, helped out in the recreation center, and assisted in post-operative care. It was a very worthwhile experience for them, and for the school as a whole.

Happy Club and FADD keep community smiling and safe

HAPPY CLUB

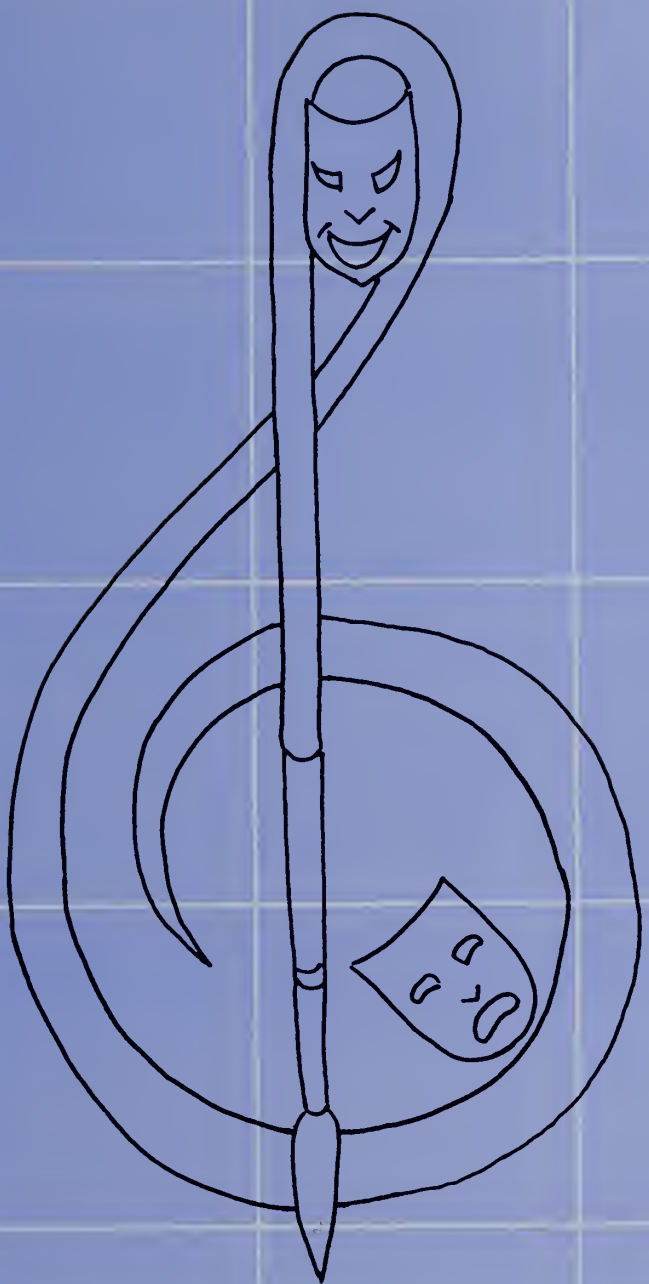

FRIENDS AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING

The Happy Club, in its second year under the leadership of founders Danny Rosin and Charlie Kollmansperger, continued its wide range of service projects this year. Although the group's major project is supporting Philippines relief effort through the Norfolk based Operation Smile, the Happy Club also sponsors local community service projects as well. This years officers included secretary Catherine Baillio, treasurer Robert Fiveash and nine class representatives. Faculty members were Mr. Simms, Mr. Glasow, and sponsor Mrs. Hume.

Another new club on the scene was Friends Against Drunk Driving, founded by co-presidents Katy Rachels and Sam Stecker. Obviously, the club's main goal is to deal with what many see as a real problem today: student drinking and driving. Inspired by summer workshops with faculty sponsor Mr. Sims, Katy and Sam have received strong student support thus far; the club boasts nearly fifty members. While FADD does not endorse student drinking, the club does take a realistic, responsible attitude toward safety at social events. FADD also brought a special Forum speaker, Mr. Morris Wheeler, to school and plans another soon. FADD hopes that they can help in this tragic social dilemma.

DIVINE COMEDY

This past spring, a diverse group of NA Players presented Neil Simon's Barefoot in the Park, a comedy about two newlyweds living in New York City. Two different casts performed the play, each occupying the limelight for two shows. The first cast was headed by Philip Rachels and Marcie Montagna, both in their Norfolk Academy stage debuts, as Paul and Corie Bratter. Veteran Dan Etheridge and delightful newcomer Katherine Crumpler played Paul and Corie in the second production. Lynn Barco shone in both productions as Mrs. Banks, Corie's very conservative mother. Ian Williams and Howard Abraham shared the comic role of Victor Velasco, an aging Cassanova who lived upstairs. Josh Hofheimer and Billy Culverhouse provided strong support in both shows as a telephone repair man and a delivery man, respectively. Directed by Mr. Jack Nelson, the show played to a packed house all four nights.

Dracula sports dynamic cast, student director

The Norfolk Academy Players performed Bob Hall and David Richmond's version of Dracula this past fall to packed houses. The play related the classic legend of the Transylvanian vampire, played by Gordon Dozier. His reluctant near-bride, Wilhemina Murray was portrayed by Christina Alexander, who is thought to be an actual descendant of the Count. Leading the strong supporting cast were Joe Webster as the educated and wise Professor Van Helsing, James Deane as asylum director Dr. Cedric Seward, and Peter Eatroff as the delightful deranged Renfield. Mike Etheridge portrayed reporter Jonathan Harker, while Alan Clark lent support as Seward's manservant Jameson. Lang Ambrose and Kerri Snyder portrayed the star-crossed Lord Godalming and Dr. Helga Van Zandt. The play also featured the directing debut of Dan Etheridge, Norfolk Academy's first student to perform in such a capacity. Mr. Jack Nelson lent a hand as associate director. The play also featured an original musical score written and performed by Billy Culverhouse and Matthew Van Hoose. Some elaborate special effects, including strategically timed explosions and escaping vampire bats added to the overall ambience of the play.

RHYTHM OF THE STREET

The Norfolk Academy of Fine Arts Department continued the tradition of the winter musical with West Side Story, Bernstein and Sondheim's classic tale of impossible love set in the streets of New York. The play is distinguished by an enthusiastic young cast, led by Bonner Hamaker as Tony, and Erin McGrew as Maria. The story revolves around the lovers' struggle to find a place free from the warfare between their rival gangs. The Jets, American boys led by the energetic and driving Riff (Mike Hines) comprised veterans Dan Etheridge, Chuck Burgess, Joe Webster, Mike Etheridge, and Corey Wallach, as well as newcomers Sean Wetmore, Russ Owens, Ned Henry, Todd Kovner, and Tamsen Snyder. The Puerto Rican Sharks consisted of all new faces to the Academy stage, with Mike Bajit, Mike Maroto, K.C. Johnson, Rick Mersel, Sam Brooke, Chris Johnson, Tom Berkley, Chris Dotolo, Will Browning, and Ed Poole as their proud leader Bernardo.

Jet girls Kerri Snyder, Cassandra Rowand, and Sandra Shannon provided a striking contrast to Shark girls Fiona Martinelli, Nicole Zimmerman, Susan Yoo, Del Patillo, and Valerie Zuraw. The dance teams were featured in various demanding numbers as well.

The "adults" of the play numbered veterans Ned Lilly (Lt. Schrank), Reiss Wilks (Doc), as well as Lawrence Kesser (Officer Krupke), and Chandler Williams (Mr. Gladhand).

West Side Story was directed by Mr. Jack Nelson and managed by Vonique Van Way.

Boys' and Girls' Varsity Lacrosse dominated Virginia with two state titles. The girls won LIS honors for the third time with a 17-0 record. Stef Trickler and Ruth Payne led the way while Jennifer Dragas, Krista Horstman, and Sanka Savvides fought to keep opposing scorers at bay. Dragas was honored as USWLA All-American and Trickler received honorable mention.

The boys were invincible. Led by All-American Billy Liles and Scott Price, the Laxmen had a 15-0 slate. Neil Stallings joined Liles and Price on the All-State team. Neil Redfern and Paul Conrad accompanied this trio on the All-VPL team. Redfern was also named MVP for his TILT play.

Both boys and girls earned TCIS court titles. The singles top three of Mary Helen Donovan, Sam Tsao, and Rebecca Chadwin paved the way to conference dominance. The boys relied upon doubles strength to capture their trophy, with Harry Hjardemaal, Sam Steingold, Louis Jordan, Sid Kitterman, and Mac Purrington providing the championship efforts.

Netminders Catherine Baillio and Julie Schmidt shut out eight opponents as the soccer team rolled to a 12-0-1 season. Leading scorers Jenny Drury, Annie Adams, and Brigette Magee in conjunction with Sam Stecker, Eleanor Ottinger and MVP Amy Shook helped NA capture the Norfolk Collegiate Invitational title.

The girl tracksters won the TCIS crown behind MVP Yvonne Anderson's winning discus and shot put efforts. Katie Elder, Danielle Reiff, and Liz Eckert earned winning points while the mile relay team of Elder, Reiff, Eckert and Joanne Keenan breezed to a victory. They also finished second in the LIS meet with Elder, Reiff, Keenan, and Anderson setting new league records.

THE THRILL OF VICTORY

In the fall, Bulldog athletic teams captured four of the five varsity championships awarded by the Tidewater Conference. The soccer team, paced by co-captains Sean Wetmore and Mike Hines, booted its way to an 18-1-3 record, which earned the TCIS regular season and tournament titles. In addition, NA took the Prep League title with a thrilling win at Blue Ridge. Team goalie and MVP Jeff Martin registered thirteen shutouts, while Brendan Sherlock and Mike Hostutler topped the scoring charts. Over on the hockey field, co-captains Amy Shook and Cole Stallings led the girls to a banner 18-1-1 season, which featured championships in the TCIS and the LIS. While cageminder Catherine Baillio was keeping the ball out of the Dogs' goal-opponents scored but three times in twenty games! Shook, Stallings, Kitty Drury, and Alison Fall were busy whacking home the ball at the other end of the field. Allison Sholten joined team MVP Drury and Stallings on the all-LIS squad. Still, NA had two champions that literally ran circles around the soccer and field hockey teams — every day. Depth was the key to success as both the boys and the girls Cross Country teams ran away with TCIS titles. Boys' MVP Charlie Kollmansperger along with Andy McCraw and Cameron Kitchen, led the men to an 11-2 season, while on the distalff side MVP Joanne Keenan got help from Anna Lee Bamforth, Tamara Hamlin, and the diminutive Amy Gravitt in keeping the girls undefeated through their twelve meets. At season's end the Lady Dogs added the LIS crown to their list of laurels. Indeed it was a great autumn for NA, as opponents fell like leaves in the face of the Dogs' athletic prowess.

FALL SPORTS

WINTER WONDERS

From varsity to junior orange, boys to girls, teams to individuals, conference to state, Bulldog athletic squads won a variety of championships during the winter athletic season. Tidewater Conference titles were gained by Coach Trickler's roundballers and Coach Lindhjem's volleyballers. After an inauspicious 2-5 start, the basketball team went on a tear, winning 17 of their next 20 en route to the championship in the TCIS Tournament. All-Conference and All-Prep League performers Ed Fraim and Don Clark paced the Dogs to their 19-10 record. More amazingly, the Spikers put together a 23-1 season log that included wins in the TCIS Tip-Off Tournament and the TCIS Post-Season Tournament. Jennifer Johnsen, Kelly Tucker, and Julie Schmidt were selected to the All-Conference team for the second straight year. On the JO level, top scorer and rebounder Stewart Laster paced Coach Zebro's basketball team to a 14-2 season that was capped by a 65-61 win over arch-nemesis Norfolk Christian in the tournament championship game.

Two Bulldog squads ranked tops in the state. Coach Lampert's girls' track team hauled off the LIS title. Mary "Team" Russ scored 52 points herself in the LIS meet, winning the 60, the 300, the 600, and the long jump. Yvonne Anderson took first in the shot put, while other point-scorers included Margaret Scott and Alexis Karageorge in the high hurdles, Amy Gravitt in the two mile, and Catherine Baillio in the 60, the high jump, and the long jump. In the water, the nomad swimmers brought home the VAIS Boys' Title for the third straight season. Team MVP Billy Gill, named the top boy high school swimmer in Norfolk by the Norfolk Sports Club, won the 50 Freestyle, while seventh-grade teammate Derek Russell swam off with a first in the 500 Freestyle, and David Gulick, Mark Davis, Tommy Gill, and Scott Cohan won the 400 Freestyle Relay. Even though the girls did not win the team title in '86, Coach Marchionda had several individual champs on the distaff side. Sarah Getgood took the 200 Freestyle and the 100 Breaststroke. Brigette Ramey won the 100 Butterfly, Norfolk Sports Club award winner Amy Shook swam to the 100 Freestyle title, and the 400 Freestyle Relay team of Shook, Ramey, Getgood, and Susan Dwyer set a new state record. A number of Coach Lindhjem's wrestlers snagged individual titles in their season-ending tournaments. Dan Rosin, Craig Dekshenieks, Dan Koch, and John Taylor, who was voted the tourney's outstanding wrestler, all took TCIS firsts. Chuck Carver notched the team's lone first in the Prep League, and Craig Dekshenieks made off with a first and the outstanding wrestler award in the VISWA Tourney. On all sports at all levels — again — the NA Bulldogs proved themselves forces to be reckoned with in '85-'86.

Don't buy any microwave oven until you know the facts!

FACT:

Only one microwave oven manufacturer is exempt from displaying a U.S. Government safety warning label. Amana.

Amana® Radarange®
MICROWAVE OVEN

- 10-Year Limited Warranty on major components. Ask us for details.
- Exclusive Rotawave® Cooking System — a rotating shower of power that cooks more evenly and cooks most foods faster than we ever thought possible!
- Cooks by time or cooks to temperature.
- Even holds at temperature to tenderize economy cuts of meat.
- A wide range of Cookmatic® power levels because different foods cook best at different speeds.
- Advanced memory. Touchmatic II can remember an amazing combination of defrost and cook programs.
- Even remembers the time of day.
- Automatic start time.
- Separate timer you can use anytime.
- 700 watts of cooking power.
- Stainless steel interior.

Six times in the last eight years, Amana has submitted its "RR" series Radarange Ovens to a voluntary U.S. Government test program. Every time, Amana has passed every one of the tests. And Amana is still the only microwave oven manufacturer that has. And Amana is still the only one exempt from displaying the government's safety warning label on the oven door.

Here are some of the tests:

- A 5 lb. steel ball was slammed into the front of the doors.
- The doors were opened and the ball was slammed into the inside seal of the ovens.
- The ball was slammed into the seal of the doors.
- The doors were closed with up to 125 lbs. of force onto a steel rod.
- The Radarange Oven went through a life test of 150,000 door openings.

After every test, the Amana Radarange did not allow microwave leakage in excess of Federal standards.

Only Amana has passed all the tests!

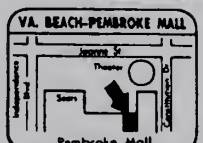

In reality, no microwave oven would ever encounter such abuse, yet the Amana Radarange is built tough enough to take it. Amana's patented choke door seal and solid construction keeps microwave energy inside the oven where it belongs, even if the door and seal are severely damaged.

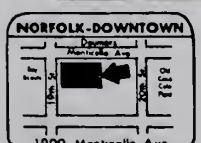

If it doesn't say Amana, it's not a Radarange®
